Dear Friend:

I have taken the liberty to send you a copy of O. C. Lambert's pamphlet, "Roman Catholicism#Un-American," which you will find enclosed. O.C. Lambert is a long time friend of mine and I know# him to be an astute scholar on this subject.

The current misconceptions and the multitude of misstatements that have arisen over the Roman Catholic issue are to be completely and fully deplored. It is because of my personal belief in stating the truth at all times and under all circumstances that I send this publication to you.

Please bear in mind that I am not concerned about the outcome of one isolated election but rather the ultimate conquest of America# by a foreign politico-religious power. There can be no doubt, ^{however,} that one election is one step and the second step can only come after the first one has been made.

Mr. Lambert has constantly and continually challenged the group under consideration in this pamphlet to change him with libel in a court of law but no such action has been forthcoming.

You owe it to yourself as an intelligent, informed American to read and evaluate this pamphlet as soon as possible.

Yours in the cause of truth,

John Allen Chalk
